CAUTION

On Friday, December 18, 2015, at approximately 4:33 p.m., the North Island Credit Union, located at 10549 Scripps Poway Parkway, San Diego, California, was robbed by an unknown male. At the time of the robbery, the robber entered the Credit Union and waited in line until summoned by a teller. Upon arriving at the teller's station, the robber whispered his demand to the teller. The robber indicated that no one would get hurt as long as the teller complied with the robber's demands. The robber then presented a demand note written on a manila envelope that demanded specific denominations. After receiving a sum of money, the robber exited the bank.
